

Office of the Director of Central Intelligence

Ambassador Samuel D. Berger
Senior Seminar in Foreign Policy
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Sam:

Thank you for your kind note of 29 January. I am sorry you missed the session on Vietnam though in all candor I must confess it is easier to talk about a subject when people such as yourself who know at least as much about it as I -- and probably more -- are not present.

The new job should be interesting, though I am still in the process of trying to sort out precisely what it entails. Your congratulations and good wishes were greatly appreciated.

With warmest personal regards,

George A. Carver, Jr.
Deputy for National Intelligence Officers
